 There's a Port on a Western bay and it serves

 A hundred ships a day lonely sailors

 Pass the time away and talk about their homes

 And there's a girl in this harbor town
 Dm Bb F
 And she works layin' whiskey down
 C F Am
 They say Brandy fetch another round
 Dm F C
 She serves them whiskey and wine

[Chorus]

 The sailors say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)

 What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl)
 C G F C F
 Your eyes could steal a sailor from the sea (do,do...)

[Verse]

C F Am
 Brandy wears a braided chain
 Dm F Bb F
 Made of finest silver from the north of Spain
 C F Am
 A locket that bears the name
 Dm F C
 Of the man that Brandy loves

C F Am
 He came on a summer's day
 Dm Bb F
 Bringing gifts from far away
 C F Am
 But he made it clear he couldn't stay
 Dm F C
 No harbor was his home

The sailors say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)

Yeah Brandy used to watch his eyes
F G
When he told his sailor's stories
Am C

Am Bb
But he had always told the truth
Am F
Lord he was an honest man
C G F C F
And Brandy does her best to understand (do,do...)

[Verse]

At night when the bars close down

Brandy walks through a silent town

She still can hear him say she hears him say

She hears him say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)

What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl)
